
Mr. and Mrs. Frigon

Armond F. and Eunice (Taylor) Frigon of Elbridge will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary today at a party in Lasca's Restaurant, Auburn. The party will be hosted by their children.

Armond and Eunice were married Feb. 9, 1946, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Syracuse.

Immediate family includes son and daughter-in-law Gary and Francis, daughter and son-in-law Jeanette and Bill Williams, daughter Lynn, son and daughter-in-law Brian and Deborah, daughter and son-in-law Donna and Vincent

Furco and grandchildren Lindsey, Russell, Sean, Shelby, Benjamin and Gregory.

Armond retired from Pirro Brothers Ford, Elbridge. He enjoys amateur radio.

Eunice retired from the Onondaga County Department of Social Service accounting department. She enjoys knitting, crocheting and reading.

Mr. and Mrs. Frigon

Armond F. and Eunice Taylor Frigon of Elbridge will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary today at a party in Lasca's Restaurant, Auburn. The party will be hosted by their children.

Armond and Eunice were married Feb. 9, 1946, in Trinity Episcopal Church, Syracuse.

Immediate family includes son and daughter-in-law Gary and Francis, daughter and son-in-law Jeanette and Bill Williams, daughter Lynn, son and daughter-in-law Brian and Deborah, daughter and son-in-law Donna and Vincent Furco and grandchildren Lindsey, Russell, Sean, Shelby, Benjamin and Gregory.

Armond retired from Pirro Brothers Ford, Elbridge. He enjoys amateur radio.

Eunice retired from the Onondaga County Department of Social Service accounting department. She enjoys knitting, crocheting and reading.

Syracuse Herald American, Sunday, February 11, 1996